Les Trois Vallées is a ski region in the French Savoie. It is possible to ski the interlinked valleys using a single ski pass. Thus, Les Trois Vallées is the largest connected ski area in the world which is linked solely by ski lifts and slopes. It claims to have about 600 km (370 miles) of ski slopes. In addition, there are 120 km for cross-country skiing. Les Trois Vallées has 183 ski lifts, which can transport 260,000 skiers per hour. Pistes are manicured nightly by a fleet of 160 snow groomers.

B&B Hotel – located in village center, five minutes to gondola. Bar, lounge, WIFI available, hair dryer in bathroom, cable TV in each room. Spa located next door.

The Village of Brides-les-Bains: You'll discover this isn't your conventional ski centre as there are no ski slopes next to it. Instead the old spa town has been connected for 20 years to the world's biggest ski area – the Three Valleys – at Meribel, by the Olympe Gondola. The lift was built in the early 1990s so that Brides Les Bains could provide accommodation for athletes participating in the Albertville 1992 Winter Olympics. The town is famous for its spa and thermal waters. The superb modern spa facilities features massage, whirlpool bath, sauna, and a variety of other experiences. Our Hotel is situated right next to the spa, and an easy walk to the Gondola.

Geneva.....Geneva is a city in Switzerland that lies at the southern tip of expansive Lac Léman (Lake Geneva). Surrounded by the Alps and Jura mountains, the city has views of dramatic Mont Blanc. Headquarters of Europe's United Nations and the Red Cross, it's a global hub for diplomacy and banking. French influence is widespread, from the language to gastronomy and bohemian districts like Carouge. Our hotel for three night, the Royale, is situated in the heart of the city.

Annecy.....Annecy is an alpine town in southeastern France, where Lake Annecy feeds into the Thiou River. It's known for its Vieille Ville (old town), with cobbled streets, winding canals and pastel-colored houses. Overlooking the city, the medieval Château d'Annecy, once home to the Counts of Geneva, contains a museum with regional artifacts such as Alpine furniture and religious art, plus a natural history exhibit.
